GLENDALE, AZ

Project Description

Located in Glendale Arizona, the Bethany Farm Parcel is a 9 acre organic farm and market plaza being developed as part of a larger 60 acre Bethany Central Business District project. The organic farm portion of the project is planned to operate as a self sustaining organic working farm that will provide produce for both the on-site market building and the restaurant to be located within the farm that will specialize in locally grown foods. The market plaza and pavilion will be the primarily lunch time destination for the Central Business District but will also host large outdoor concerts, festivals and a seasonal farmers market.

The final piece to the Bethany Farm Parcel is the portion of the farm that will be dedicated to art and the production of art. This area of the park will host artist in residence and will have active studios where artist can be scene engaged in the process of making art. Construction of the Farm Parcel is due to start in the summer of 2008 and will be completed in 2009.
